About Sullivan University

Sullivan University is the Commonwealth of Kentucky’s largest independent college or university with an enrollment of over 6,000 students. It is the flagship institution of The Sullivan University System which serves over 12,000 students each year.

Sullivan University and its faculty and staff have received numerous awards and honors. It is recognized as one of the United States’ leading career-focused Universities. The University offers classes year-round on a four quarter class schedule allowing students to receive education and training year-round and to accelerate graduation.

The University and its staff are recognized leaders in online distance education and serve as consultants to other colleges as well as being authors in this dynamic growing education delivery system. Over 1,300 faculty and staff provide service 24 hours a day to students from 38 states and over 58 countries pursuing certificates and degrees on line worldwide; in hybrid (combined online and on campus) classes, and in totally on-campus classes.

The University is regionally accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and schools—one of the six regional accrediting agencies in the United States which accredit the majority of the United States major colleges and universities. Sullivan is accredited to award associate, bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degrees and awards both the Doctor of Pharmacy and a Ph.D. in Management.
